- As a young adult, I would be interested in an introduction to opera and a networking group of young adults.

The Dallas Opera Guild is the major volunteer force for The Dallas Opera. Will you help?

- Adopt-an-Artist – Welcome opera artists and production staff, and offer hospitality, particularly airport transportation. No opera expertise needed. Proof of auto insurance is required.

Guild Events – Join a committee to plan social or educational events, including but not limited to the following:

- Lunch for the TDO staff on opening night.
 Member Premier Party, Holiday Event, Spring Event.
 Reception/meal during Institute for Women Conductors.

- Guided Notes – Utilize your writing and editing skills.

Opera Insights – This is a lively panel discussion given a week before each opera. The principal artists and production staff offer wonderful insight about the opera, their roles and their lives. They frequently mingle with the Guild at a reception afterwards.

- Assist with folding programs and/or greeting at Insights.
 Bring an appetizer or wine to the reception afterwards.
 Serve wine at the reception.

Dallas Opera Guild National Vocal Competition – This is a national competition with a world-class panel of judges to showcase the nation's finest young opera singers.

- Assist the VC Guild committee and opera staff in various Vocal Competition preparations and/or day of event.

Volunteer for TDO Events – Volunteer at outreach events like the family opera events or at the AT&T Stadium simulcast.

Guild Opera Travel – Would you like to receive information about Guild opera trips? Past trips: St. Louis, NYC, Dresden, Prague, Vienna, Berlin and more.

Additional Guild Volunteer Opportunities:
