The Dallas Opera's Free OperaPops! Concert on Friday, May 21
Has Been Moved Indoors Due to Inclement Weather

7:30 PM Concert to Take Place at Winspear Opera House

DALLAS—Due to the threat of inclement weather tomorrow, May 21, the free OperaPops! performance by The Dallas Opera at Annette Strauss Square has been moved indoors, to the Winspear Opera House.

The program, featuring soprano Deanna Breiwick and Grammy®-winning singers mezzo-soprano Sasha Cooke and baritone Lucas Meachem with TDO Orchestra in a program of favorites from both the opera and Broadway stages, remains the same.

The free event is open to all and seating at the Winspear will be first come, first served; doors open at 6:00 p.m., seating begins at 6:45 p.m. Masks are required; distanced seating will be maintained. This is not a ticketed event and prior registration does not guarantee admission. More information at dallasopera.org/pops.
