

The Dallas Opera Announces Free Summer Streaming of its 65th Anniversary Season

DALLAS—(05/01/2023) This summer, The Dallas Opera will offer all 2022/2023 Season opera productions free on its digital streaming platform, thedallasopera.TV. Beginning on May 1, 2023, with Verdi's Rigoletto, digital audiences can watch performances on demand at no cost on any digital device including Smart TVs. Recorded live at the Winspear Opera House, the performances also include exclusive behind-the-scenes content.

"In celebration of our spectacular 65th Anniversary Season we are bringing Dallas Opera performances to opera fans wherever they may be," said Ian Derrer, The Kern Wildenthal General Director and CEO. "We are especially thrilled to provide easy and free access to those who may want to experience opera for the very first time."

Streaming is available exclusively on thedallasopera.TV online or by downloading the app on your mobile device or Smart TV. Available apps include iPhone, Apple TV, Android, Android TV, Roku, and Amazon Fire TV. There is no cost to view each opera, however customers are required to create an account before gaining access to content. All operas include English language translations embedded at the bottom of the screen. ### About The Dallas Opera

One of the leading opera companies in the country, The Dallas Opera has an extraordinary legacy of world-class productions and thrilling premieres featuring the greatest operatic artists of our time. Inaugurated in 1957 with a concert featuring the incomparable Maria Callas, TDO is known for the notable U.S. debuts of a host of legendary artists including Plácido Domingo, Dame Joan Sutherland, Jon Vickers, Franco Zeffirelli, and Sir David McVicar. The company has long been an industry leader and innovator through groundbreaking initiatives including the Hart Institute for Women Conductors, TDO Network, free public simulcasts, acclaimed art song recitals, the national vocal competition, special concerts, and outstanding family and award-winning education programs. TDO's home is the Margot and Bill Winspear Opera House in the Dallas Arts District. As one of the largest performing arts employers in North Texas, TDO is proudly committed to diversity, both onstage and off, and is a major contributor to the economic vitality and international cultural reputation of this region.
