The Dallas Opera Announces Casting Updates for 2024/2025 Season

[DALLAS, May 21, 2024]—The Dallas Opera's 2024/2025 Season opens with five performances of Verdi's iconic La traviata, October 18, 20, 23, 26, and 27, 2024.

Tenor Xabier Anduaga, who was scheduled to make his TDO debut in the role of Alfredo Germont, has withdrawn from these appearances due to family reasons.

Replacing Anduaga in the role of Alfredo Germont, in their TDO debuts, are Javier Camarena, on October 18, 20, 23 and 26, and Bekhzod Davronov—who also sings the role this summer in Santa Fe Opera's co-production with The Dallas Opera—on October 27. (Davronov returns to TDO to sing the role of Rodolfo in Puccini's La bohème in February/March 2025.)

ABOUT THE DALLAS OPERA

One of the leading opera companies in the country, The Dallas Opera has an extraordinary legacy of world-class productions and thrilling premieres featuring the greatest operatic artists of our time. Inaugurated in 1957 with a concert featuring the incomparable Maria Callas, TDO is known for the notable U.S. debuts of a host of legendary artists including Plácido Domingo, Dame Joan Sutherland, Jon Vickers, Franco Zeffirelli, and Sir David McVicar. The company has long been an industry leader and innovator through groundbreaking initiatives including the Hart Institute for Women Conductors, free and low-cost digital streaming, public simulcasts, acclaimed art song recitals, the national vocal competition, special concerts, and outstanding family and award-winning education programs. TDO's home is the Margot and Bill Winspear Opera House in the Dallas Arts District. As one of the largest performing arts employers in North Texas, TDO is proudly committed to diversity, both onstage and off, and is a major contributor to the economic vitality and international cultural reputation of this region.
