Sign Your Children Up for The Dallas Opera's Kid's Opera Boot Camp!

(DALLAS, June 3, 2025)—Bring the magic of music and opera to your children's summer with the annual Kid's Opera Boot Camp from The Dallas Opera (TDO). Led by TDO's Education staff and Teaching Artists, this FREE, 3-hour workshop teaches children the ins and outs of putting on an opera performance.

Students in grades K - 6 will explore music, stage movement, and visual arts from TDO's professional opera singers. At the end of the session, the TDO singers will perform the company's fan-favorite children's opera The Three Little Pigs, which features music by Mozart and teaches kids about the power of reading.

This half-day workshop is open to individual children, school groups, and out-of-school time organizations and their adult chaperones. Inspire a lifelong love of this classic art form by sending your children to a Kid's Opera Boot Camp session. Sign up here, and learn more here.
